Heidelberg Art and Culture Award: Information on Participation

How would you represent our theme “zeit.los” (time.less) on a poster, on flyers and in a logo for our website and social media? The Heidelberg Art and Culture Prize (KKP) is being awarded for the 16th time this year. Across Germany, creative minds will be given the opportunity to create a corporate design package for the 34th Heidelberg Symposium under the theme “zeit.los”. The winning design will be awarded 500€ in prize money and honored at the 34th Heidelberg Symposium. The symposium will take place from May 11 to 13, 2023 at the Ruprecht-Karls-University Heidelberg. The selected poster will be displayed throughout Heidelberg and the surrounding area to get people excited about the symposium. More information about the symposium can be found on the website of the Heidelberg Club for Business and Culture (www.heidelberg-symposium.de) and on social media (Facebook, Instagram, Twitter).

The Heidelberger Club für Wirtschaft und Kultur e.V. (Heidelberg Club for Business and Culture, HCWK) is an independent, non-partisan and interdisciplinary student initiative founded in 1988 with the aim of complementing university education through practical relevance and interdisciplinary exchange. The HCWK's mission is to promote dialogue between students and leading figures from politics, business, science and culture. To this end, the Heidelberg Club organizes an annual three-day forum on a current topic of social relevance. About 40 important personalities from politics, business and society take part in the event as speakers and about 1000 visitors. The HCWK is recognized as a non-profit association and its activities are mainly supported by the voluntary commitment of the student organization team.

Conditions of Participation:

1. A poster in DIN-A1 format and a logo matching the theme “zeit.los” (time.less).
2. Deadline is January 8, 2023 (in digital form to einsendungen@hcwk.de).
3. The file names of your submissions should include your name.
4. The design package must be created specifically for this event and not by a third party.
5. With your submission you declare that HCWK e.V. is allowed to use the material sent to him – in case you win – unlimited in time and scope.
Claims of utilization do not arise in mutual agreement.
6. The entry must be accompanied by a completed entry form.
7. The legal process is excluded. Prizes in kind cannot be paid out.
8. You have read and agree to the privacy statement below and agree to it.

We look forward to receiving your entry!
